Who Makes Public Policies ?

Policy comes from those who have legitimate authority to impose normative guidelines for action. It is made by elected officials acting in concert with advisors from the higher levels of the administration. Government ministers are the elected officials at the apex of government who have the right to articulate policy. Non-elected officials then are required to implement the policy through programs.

What is a Policy Framework?

A policy framework is a broad set of policies that governs the actions of groups and organizations. The broad set of policies forms a web and impacts new policy development and policy amendments. The presence or absence of a policy affects all other policies within the web (both existing and new).
